RE: Overcharge of Notice of Appeal Fee for Application Serial No. 09/836,397

2009-05-05 14:42

Sir,

I submitted a Notice of Appeal for the above captioned patent application on March 17, 2009 (see attached). On March 25, 2009, I was charged a fee of $540, which is the current fee for filing a Notice of Appeal. However, I had previously paid at least $500, and the full amount of $540 should not be charged, as explained below.

Under MPEP 1204.01 (see attached), "[a]ny previously paid appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 for filing a notice of appeal, filing an appeal brief, and requesting an oral hearing (if applicable) will be applied to the new appeal on the same application as long as a final Board decision has not been made on the prior appeal." I had filed a Notice of Appeal and paid the then-current fee in 2006 for this application, and there is no final Board decision on this application. Thus the fee I paid in 2006 should be applied to the current Notice of Appeal.

I also attached a web version of the deposit account statement showing a 09/19/2006 payment of $500 for the previous filed Notice of Appeal (fee code 1401).

Please refund the difference to my deposit account.

Sincerely,

Hark Chan

1204.01 Reinstatement of Appeal [R-3]

If an appellant wishes to reinstate an appeal after prosecution is reopened, appellant must file a new notice of appeal in compliance with 37 CFR 41.31 and a complete new appeal brief in compliance with 37 CFR 41.37. Any previously paid appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 for filing a notice of appeal, filing an appeal brief, and requesting an oral hearing (if applicable) will be applied to the new appeal on the same application as long as a final Board decision has not been made on the prior appeal. If, however, the appeal fees have increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the current fee(s) and the amount previously paid. Appellant must file a complete new appeal brief in compliance with the format and content requirements of 37 CFR 41.37(c) within two months from the date of filing the new notice of appeal.
